Teacher' s aide requirements illinois

Teacher assistants, also known as paraprofessionals, work in educational institutions and support teachers. The main goal of this position is to give teachers more time in the classroom, organize lesson plans, and focus on teaching. Other assignments of a teacher assistant may include grading tests, student supervision during activities, and teaching if the official teacher is not available. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the median income is between 17,610 and 28,180 U.S. dollars. EducationThe Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) requires all teaching assistants to complete at least 30 semester credit hours at an accredited university or community school. Applicants are also eligible for paraprofessional certification if they have completed a paraprofessional training program from a local community college accredited by the Illinois State Board of Education. The ISBE offers a list of all accredited educational institutions in the state of Illinois. ETS ParaPro Assessment Applicants who have not met the required educational requirements can qualify for the Teaching Assistant License by passing the ETS ParaPro Assessment with a score of at least 460. The ParaPro assessment measures an applicant's knowledge of mathematics, reading and writing. This exam consists of 90 multiple-choice questions and has a deadline of two and a half hours. From 2010, the fee for the ETS ParaPro Assessment will be USD 45.00. This test is given all year round at locations across Illinois. Professional Training Points (PTPs)To be approved for certification by the Illinois State Board of Education and the No Child Left Behind Act, applicants must complete 300 Professional Training Points (PTPs). The ICBE states that applicants may collect the above points through four ways: completing a year as a teacher assistant in a public or private institution; One working year corresponds to 30 PTP up to a maximum of 150 PTP. Applicants must include an official letter containing the applicant's working history. This letter must be signed by the principle or the principal administrator of the working group or school. College credits over 30 credit hours. Each additional semester lesson corresponds to 15 PTP. Applicants must submit an official transcript highlighting the total semester credit period. Applicants can complete the Paraprofessional Test Preparation Curriculum developed by the Illinois State Board of Education. This program is available at community colleges across the state. This program offers applicants a total of 15 PTPs. Applicants must present the official certificate of completion. One hour of training in reading, writing, and mathematics corresponds to a PTP. To demonstrate this training, applicants must submit ISBE Form 77-21, which consists of the topic, date, location and program outline.
